Flat fees for Florida estate plans.

Every family deserves a good plan. It is never too early. Do not let it be too late.

Plan	One person	Married couple
Essentials For every adult. The documents that speak for you while you are alive but unable. Durable power of attorney · Designation of health care surrogate · Living will · HIPAA authorization	$995	$1,495
Will Plan For simpler estates, renters, and families who want a will that says who receives what. Everything in Essentials, plus a will	$2,495	$3,495
Trust Plan For homeowners and families who want a trusted person ready to step in, and property placed in the trust to pass without probate. Everything in Essentials, plus a revocable living trust, a pour-over will, and written instructions for placing your accounts in your trust	$3,495	$4,495

Add to any plan: a guardian designation for minor children, $295. Add to the Will or Trust Plan: a pet trust for horses or other animals, $495.
Every plan includes a planning meeting by video, by phone, or in person, as appropriate, and a Signing Party where your documents are signed, witnessed, and notarized with every formality Florida law requires.

How payment works

Half of the fee to begin, and half when your documents are ready to sign. Payment over time is also available, with the final payment due before your Signing Party. Your fee is set out in a written engagement letter before any work begins.

Deeds

I do not prepare deeds. If your plan calls for a new deed to your home, I will refer you to counsel who handles that. Their fees, and any recording fees, are separate.

Costs

Printing, copies, and your binder are included. Notarization by me is $5 per notarial act. If you choose another notary or witnesses, any fee they charge, and any courier delivery you request, is yours to pay.

Basic plans

These fees are for basic plans for Florida residents. Situations that may mean an additional fee include, among others, a blended family, a beneficiary with special needs, business interests, property outside Florida, custom terms, and additional meetings or revisions.
